Rear View

Designed foremost to provide efficient work centers for efficient office operation, the York Group maintains beauty and integrity of styling as well. Created in the mood of Chippendale, each piece of this group shows the excellence that fine woods, fine styling and fine workmanship will produce.

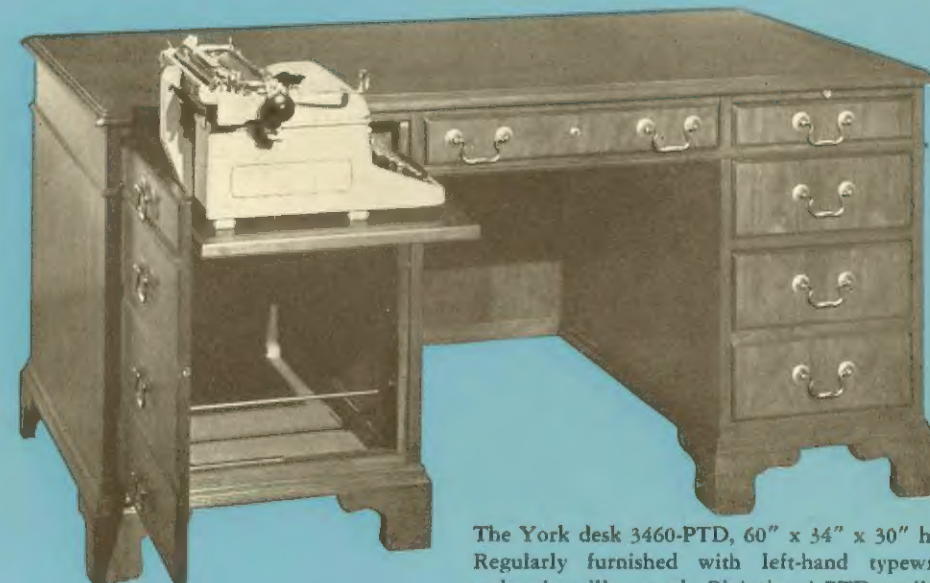

In each York Group desk maximum utility is provided. In the right pedestal there are three regular drawers and a small drawer. In the left pedestal, one regular drawer, a double file drawer (equipped with Pendaflex file unit) and a small drawer. The center drawer has a utility tray and is equipped with a lock which also controls the pedestal drawers.

A complete listing of companion chairs is found in the Stow & Davis Chair brochure. The 37 and 38 series chairs are especially recommended.
